CHILD CARE CENTER POLICY DISCLOSURES [CODIFIED AT COLO. REV. STAT. § 26.4-5-314]

This bill requires that licensed child-care centers give two disclosures to their parents. First, they must disclose that the workers at the center are mandatory child abuse or neglect reporters. Second, if the child-care center uses video recording, it must disclose its video recording policies, including any retention, disposal, privacy protection, and rules regarding access to video footage.
