Colorado League of Charter Schools

Technical Assistance Programming 2026–27

Finance Community of Practice

Presented by Afton Partners | January–June 2027

Build a Stronger Financial Foundation for your School

Strong financial leadership goes beyond managing budgets. It means understanding your school's financial health, making informed strategic decisions and working effectively with your governing board to plan for long-term sustainability. The League's Finance Community of Practice, facilitated by Afton Partners, helps charter school leaders build the knowledge and confidence to navigate these responsibilities.

Procurement Coaching

Presented by BuyQ | January–June 2027

Smarter Purchasing. Stronger School Operations.

Effective purchasing practices can help charter schools reduce risk, improve efficiency and make better use of limited resources. The League's Procurement Coaching program, delivered by BuyQ, provides individualized support to help schools assess their current purchasing practices, strengthen internal controls and vendor management, and identify opportunities for more efficient, sustainable operations.

Startup Coaching: Year 0

Presented by LeadJoy | January–September 2027

Build a Strong Foundation for a Successful School Opening

Opening a new charter school requires careful financial planning, strong operational systems and the ability to navigate competing priorities. The League's Startup Coaching program, delivered by LeadJoy Education Solutions, provides individualized finance and operations support to help charter schools preparing to open in fall 2027 strengthen their readiness and address critical challenges before opening day.

Colorado Operations Leader Fellowship

Presented by SchoolOps | January–June 2027

Strengthen Your Leadership. Elevate Your School's Operations.

Strong school operations require more than managing daily tasks. They demand effective systems, thoughtful leadership and the ability to turn priorities into action. The League's Colorado Operations Leader Fellowship, delivered by SchoolOps, helps charter school operations leaders strengthen their skills, build confidence and tackle real-world operational challenges through applied professional learning and individualized coaching.

Learning Communities

Our Learning Communities are specialized cohorts led by League staff and open to all who seek support in areas critical for sustaining high-quality charter schools. Network around key areas and meet regularly with peers and thought leaders in the larger community.

Join a cohort today and begin diving into current topics and critical themes within a community of support and extended knowledge. Each learning community includes a discussion board for sharing valuable information and posing questions to the larger group, as well as an archive of helpful resources.
