

Parker Performing Arts School
Intervention Teacher
Job Description

Summary:

All employees of Parker Performing Arts School will work together to achieve our school's vision and mission. In addition to the duties and responsibilities listed below, we seek an Intervention Teacher who can assist in planning and providing individual and group instruction to students in Reading and Math.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Knowledge of the READ Act and ability to fulfill requirements
- Support classroom teachers with literacy and math instruction and intervention across a variety of levels
- Collaborate with literacy and math teams to effectively implement reading and math instruction and intervention for students
- Work with Tier 2/Tier 3 students to provide effective reading interventions
- Effectively teach phonological awareness, phonics, vocabulary, comprehension, and fluency skills
- Effectively differentiate instruction to meet the needs of learners and work alongside classroom teachers to support differentiation in the classroom
- Administer and oversee the iReady assessment and progress monitoring across a body of evidence for students on given caseload
- Communicate proactively with other staff, students, and parents

Required Qualifications:

- Masters of Reading or Endorsement in Reading preferred (or equivalent experience)
- Strong literacy training and experience in the application of best practices in early/emergent reading strategies.
- Highly qualified in Math
- Completion of mandatory Read Act Training
- Proficient use of technology
- Good diagnostic skills
- Excellent communication skills including report writing and record keeping

Preferred Qualifications:

- Passion for the arts in education.
- Experience in charter schools
- Experience as an intervention specialist